A MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents,

Welcome back! I hope that each of you had a wonderful break and enjoyed special time with friends and family. Quality time with family can be remarkably uplifting, and I am confident that, as always, you have returned to our partnership with renewed passion.

We still have much learning to do! Now that we have returned to school refreshed, let's finish the trimester strong and smart!

Remember, regular attendance and punctuality are good habits to form NOW!

SHOUT OUT News!

Check out MS. BARLOW'S amazing 5th grade class performing for the 1st graders, and teaching them their Body Beat! This is such an excellent example of collaboration and working together throughout the grade levels. Ms. Barlow, the kids love you. Thank you for putting so much effort into what you do and working so hard to include students who are not in your specials class, and for doing such a wonderful job boosting these students' self-confidence through music. THANK YOU SO MUCH!!! LINDSAY KOCH

You are doing amazing things in music -- your efforts are recognized and appreciated! The students love your class! Keep up the good work and THANK YOU! MICHELLE GALLARDO

WINTER SEASON!

This week starts the beginning of our winter season. We will have a boys and girls basketball team! If your student-athlete makes the team please make sure they have a current physical and pay their $25 fee to Ms. Becca in the main office. Practices will be Monday-Thursday from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm.

Thank You and Good Luck to our teams and coaches!!

PARENT CHILD COMMUNICATION. PART 1:

Earn your child's trust by developing open, effective communication with your child. Communicating with your child is a two-way street. As the parent, you must be able to talk, but you must also be a great listener. Hear both the description of events that your child is communicating but also tune in and acknowledge the emotions your child is feeling.
