A MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents,

Around this time of year, students need to be reminded of the expectations for success at school.

Please help us:

- Go over student behavior standards and remind your children of expected behaviors both at school, on the bus, and walking to and from school.
- Your Children need to do their homework every night and turn it in when it is due.
- All snow is to remain on the ground. Snow should not be thrown.
- Children should come dressed for learning, and please remember that no jeans are allowed.

SCHOOL COUNSELOR

TIPS FOR COMMUNICATING WITH YOUR CHILDREN: PART 1

Focus and listen to your child: Effective listening is not a passive activity but a very active one. Being a good parent means being a great listener and respecting that your child is the authority in his or her own life experience.

Listen to and understand: By understanding your child's experiences, perspective and temperament, you can better know your student and help them make the right decisions. As a result, they will interact well with others which will help build their self-esteem.
